

For Immediate Release

March 20, 2024

Publishing Partners announces the release of YUTKA And the Voyage of the Parita, creative nonfiction, by Port Townsend author, Marcia Breece.

In 1939, Jewish youth nearly starve to death as the rescue ship Parita tries to break the British blockade to reach the Land of Israel. Meanwhile, the Nazis carry out unspeakable acts of violence against the families left behind. Based on an incredible true story of courage, grief, and love, YUTKA And the Voyage of the Parita, is rich in historical accuracy and authentic characters. It is an impassioned look into seventeen-year-old Yutka Lipka's harrowing escape to British Mandate Palestine, the grisly fate of her family at the hands of the Nazis, and the triumph of Israeli independence.

Yutka's son, Sam Regev, Ph.D., author of My Call of Abraham, translated his mother's letters, postcards, and journals, and contributed photographs and memories, making Yutka And the Voyage of the Parita an authentic account of her traumatic journey to Eretz Israel.

eBook preorder now available online

eBook and print available online April 15

###

More about YUTKA And the Voyage of the Parita, and author Marcia Breece, visit www.marciabreece.com or contact marcia@marciabreece.com, or contact Marcia at 206-972-1407 (text or voice).